

Communicate with confidence

A thought provoking and energising workshop that will give participants the skills to immediately build new relationships and strengthen existing ones. In just a few hours the participants will have increased self awareness about their own communication style and understand why they find some people easier to communicate with than others. They will develop a range of tools to use so they can communicate with skill and authenticity from their first interaction with anyone.

Who should participate

- Anyone who has to influence others in their daily lives
- Leaders who want to motivate teams for great results
- Business owners who have people to manage
- Executives who want to have a voice with their peers and leaders
- Team members who want to communicate with confidence

Learning outcomes

- How to build trust and be authentic
- Understanding what factors influence the way we communicate
- Understanding how to recognise different communication styles
- How to adapt your style for more effect
- How to communicate effectively when having difficult conversations
- How to ask questions that engage others
- Techniques to persuade and influence

The lasting difference

- Increased personal success
- Increased knowledge about different ways of communicating
- Greater enjoyment as you interact with others
- More authentic relationships that will last
- An ongoing awareness of your own communication style
- Greater confidence

If you would like to gain confidence to communicate more effectively for personal and professional success contact us at Kandula learn more about our workshops